are famous for, along with the quality and reliability from Memjet and their new DuraFlex technology. This new breed of inkjet printer offers a profitable alternative to the smaller desktop, toner-based digital color printers on the market today, as well as a low cost alternative to larger production press systems. With its 12.75" printhead, it can produce high quality 1600 x1600 dpi color images and reach speeds of 150 ft/min. The FireJet 4C uses pigment aqueous inks and has a long printhead life. Kirk-Rudy's powerful XColor RIP and color management software make the FireJet and all-in-one Digital Color Press capable of producing direct mail, variable data forms and high quality color envelopes.

high-speed inkjet printing. The ComColor printers combine ultra-fast printing technology with cost-effective color printing. Inkjet printing technology is ideal in print-to-mail environments because pages are printed without static or paper curl. Finished documents can then be immediately processed in folding/inserting equipment without wasting time waiting for pages to cool. Specially formulated ink prints dry and is fade- and water-resistant for reliable high-quality output. Since it uses requires no heat, inkjet printing uses less energy and keeps your printing equipment running smoothly even for high-volume runs. Ultra-fast print speeds up to 160 pages per minute, without slowing for duplex printing, further boosts productivity. The ComColor's Inkjet technology also allows you to add the engaging color that your customers want for a fraction of the cost of color toner multi-function devices. With the ComColor printers, you can make the switch from black and white to color without sacrificing your budget or productivity, since it prints color at fully rated speeds. You can even add optional accessories to add more flexibility to your finishing needs. Increase productivity and efficiency with the Riso ComColor inkjet printing technology from Pitney Bowes.
